

The Town of New Milford is currently accepting applications for the position of Economic Development Director. Qualified applicants will possess a deep understanding of commercial, office, and industrial development. The position will include business attraction, retention, including small business development initiatives. Experience working with potential developers, employers, brokers, realtors, government agencies, and the general public is required. Interested qualified applicants should submit a Resume, Cover Letter, three professional references, and a completed Town of New Milford employment application to: Greg Bollaro, Personnel Director, 10 Main Street, New Milford, CT. 06776, gbollaro@newmilford.org No faxed applications will be accepted. New Milford is an equal opportunity employer.