

Section 090-050 Method of Identification

Each Protected Landmark District shall be suitably marked by an identification plaque approved by the Commission and describing its significance. All signs, and the identification plaque, shall continue to meet the sign provisions of these regulations.